

FRIENDSHIP NEWSLETTER

For Thai English Students

Helping you have a Happy Home

Match the sentences so you can learn what things you can do to be helpful around your home. On the blanks, write what item in the home are being talked about. Add the number to the blank in front of the right sentence.

See the example - #1: Make your bed when you get out of it.

- | | | |
|-------------------------|----------|--|
| 1. Make your bed | _____ | after you have eaten your meal. |
| 2. Answer the _____ | _____ | so they know they are loved. |
| 3. Wipe up the _____ | _____ | that you have just dropped |
| 4. Turn down the _____ | _____ | when you're leaving the room. |
| 5. Hang up the _____ | 1 | when you get out of it. |
| 6. Feed the _____ | _____ | that you have just opened |
| 7. Turn off the _____ | _____ | that you spilled on the floor. |
| 8. Talk to your _____ | _____ | if someone is talking on the phone. |
| 9. Close the _____ | _____ | if it has started to ring. |
| 10. Help wash the _____ | _____ | so it won't cry. |
| 11. Pick up the _____ | _____ | that you have just decided not to wear. |

Can you solve the puzzle?

Lynn, Alan, Bob, Janet and Erik are a family. The two doctors have light colored hair. The father and the daughter have dark hair. Janet's children are: A waitress, a pilot and a doctor. Erik is an accountant. Bob is dark. What is Alan's job? What is the father's name?

	Occupation	Hair Color	Relationship in Family
Lynn
Alan
Bob
Janet
Erik

By Arlene Sorenson

Copyright © 2005 by OMF Thailand