

7. Right and Wrong

Many, many years ago, God gave us a law so that we can know what is right and what is wrong. It happened like this: God made an appointment with the people of Israel and they all came together at the foot of the mountain Sinai. The mountain was covered with smoke and it trembled. The people also trembled with fear. Then God called the leader, Moses, to come and receive the law on top of the mountain. God wrote His law on two tablets of stone. The first tablet taught the people that they should love God. On it was written:

1. I am the only God and you should worship me only.
2. Do not make or worship images and idols.
3. Do not misuse my name.
4. You must put aside time to spend with me.
5. You must honour your father and your mother.

The second tablet taught that we should love other people.

On it God wrote:

6. Do not murder.
7. Do not commit adultery.
8. Do not steal.
9. Do not lie.
10. Do not covet.

The people kept the stone tablets in a special gold box and they took it with them everywhere they went. From that day on they knew what is right and what is wrong.
